The 9th International Conference on Tourism and Hospitality between China-Spain ICT 2019

www.china-spain.org

September 30 – October 2, 2019, Barcelona, Spain

In its 9th edition, the International Conference on Tourism and Hospitality between China and Spain (ICTCHS 2019) will be held at Barcelona, Spain, from September 30 to October 2.

All original paper contributions in English and Chinese that may help in the mutual understanding of Asian-Western tourism research and development are welcome to submit to the conference. All the papers that would like to be published in the proceedings of the conference should be in English and full length. If you decide not to be published, you can write the paper in Chinese or Spanish, but at least the title, abstract and presentation at the conference should be in English.

Barcelona is the cosmopolitan capital of Spain's Catalonia region, it is best known for its art and architecture. The fantastical Sagrada Família church and other modernist landmarks designed by Antoni Gaudí dot the city. Museum of Picasso and Foundation of Joan Miró feature modern art by their namesakes. Other "must see" places include the street La Rambla starting from la Plaza de Catalunya, the magic fountain of Montjuïc, the home of Barcelona football team Camp Nou, ... just to name a few.

The conference will have two major parts, the academic part and the industrial part. The academic part is for international researchers in tourism and hospitality related fields from all over the world interested to exchange their research results directly. The industrial part is mainly addressed to the tourism and hospitality sectors to promote an active cooperation between Western and Chinese companies to provide business opportunities and direct contact.

All the papers will pass a peer to peer review to be accepted. Accepted full papers will be selected and published in the conference proceedings. In addition, based on the quality, some of the presented papers will be invited to be considered on to publish in SCI indexed journals after a full extension.
